*"Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all of the darkness." – Desmond Tutu

Dear Members & Guests

Despite the challenges our world faces—conflict, poverty, climate change, and more—hope remains a powerful force. It drives action, fuels resilience, and keeps us moving forward. At Sustainable Speakers Online, we believe in the power of good public speaking to inspire, educate, and create change. Even in the darkest moments, we must keep our minds focused on the light.

This month, we are supporting Climate Fresh, helping to enhance climate literacy and drive collective action. We are also hosting an exciting club meeting focused on Achieving the Impossible.

Testimonials

Attending Climate Fresk is an excellent investment in climate literacy. Victoria facilitates online Fresks with ease and fun. These sessions equip participants with scientifically accurate knowledge, a systems-thinking mindset, and the confidence to engage !

Kavita Dulai (CISL)- London

Climate Fresk makes climate science easy to understand and sparks great conversations. It's a fun, eye-opening way to see the big picture and inspire action.

Nadia Liapi(CISL) - Geneva

Climate Fresk is fun and effective for those who want to be able to gauge what they read and hear in the media, for those who want to tackle the overwhelming inflow of information by developing system thinking, and for those who want to brush up on their knowledge.
